IN RE: Cornelius O'Donnell

David Cook
Trois Johnson

Dear Howard:

Herewith is data on three subjects. "We have the goods" on O'Donnell and Cook. Johnson denies guilt, but a Scout and the boys' father told me the story, so I must take their word.

I assume this is sufficient information. This is a sordid situation. All three were involved in "the Group".

Yours truly

Re: Cornelius J. O'Donnell
David R. Cook
Dr. Trois Johnson

Dear Harry:

Thank you for your letter of June 14 requesting that we place Messrs. O'Donnell, Cook and Johnson on our confidential file. Before we can take any action we really should have more information.

For what reason should these individuals be put on the file? We need to know some facts about this situation. What incidents or situations occurred to warrant placing these men on the confidential file? We really should have more details, together with any substantiating documents that may be available regarding each situation so that we can better analyze the matter and determine how it should be handled.

Enclosed are three confidential record sheets which we would appreciate your filling out and returning to us, together with as much of the above requested information as possible. Thanks very much for your additional help.

Sincerely yours,
